7 “Judge not, that you be not judged. 2 For with the judgement you pronounce you will be judged, and with the measure you use it will be measured to you. 3 Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye? 4 Or how can you say to your brother, ‘Let me take the speck out of your eye’, when there is the log in your own eye? 5 You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye.

6 “Do not give dogs what is holy, and do not throw your pearls before pigs, lest they trample them underfoot and turn to attack you.

Talk Outline

Self Examination

Introduction

1. We are quick to see faults in others

2. We are slow to see faults in ourselves

Application: We need to practise self examination

Question: What from our passage resonates with your own experience? How can we better make use of Bible teaching and reading to examine ourselves?
