God shows no partiality

i. He will judge according to works (v6-11)

ii. He will judge according to knowledge (v12-16)

Questions:

How does reflecting on God's fair / impartial character show us we need rescue from His judgement?

What kind of 'excuses' does Paul deal with in these verses? Does anybody think these things at work?

How might you explain this to a colleague? (i.e. judgement is on the basis of knowledge and works)

How does this encourage you to a) stand firm in the gospel, and b) make it known to colleagues at work?
