Headline: Watch our motivations in public Christian living
e.g. giving, praying, serving etc.

- Doing it for the approval of others ...

...means no further reward from God

- Doing it only for our Father

... will be seen, even in secret

... will be rewarded

Questions:

- When are you most tempted to live the Christian life for the approval of others?
- Which of the motivations here will most help you to live for God?
- How could this help us be more whole-hearted in i) Christian giving? ii) praying?
iii) other public areas e.g. service, hospitality, evangelism etc.?
