What does Jesus' sacrifice mean for me?

a. No need for a performance

"The law has but a shadow of the good things to come..."
(Hebrews 10:1)

b. No need for a guilty conscience

c. No need to keep our distance

"Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith..."
(Hebrews 10:22)

Application: draw near to God

Questions for discussion:

When do we feel nervous about approaching God? And why?

Why do these verses say we can do this with confidence?

What wrong understandings of Christianity do these verses correct?

How is Jesus better than a) religion, and b) secularism?
