Introduction: 2 ways to live

1. Self-centred life: 'treasure for himself'

- coveting lots of stuff
- getting lots of stuff
- ...but what happens then?

2. God-centred life: 'rich toward God'

- be on your guard
- be rich toward God

Questions

- Isn't it just normal to want more wealth and possessions and experiences?
- What would it look like to a) be on our guard & b) be rich towards God?
